Pastor's Message

Greetings, people of God!

With Deacon Chris on sabbatical, studying more about the role of deacons in the church's history, I thought it would be helpful to do a little studying of my own, starting with a look through the Bible at the crucial and often overlooked role of deacons in the early church.

Deacons first came on the scene as the church was in its infancy. In the Pentecost story, the Holy Spirit filled the disciples, and they began to speak in other languages. Peter proclaimed the good news about Jesus, and, as a result, thousands of people joined the group to worship, live, and serve together (Acts 2:43-47). People came from all around the area, bringing those who were ill and those tormented by demons, and the disciples were able to cure them. But a challenge soon arose: the disciples were having difficulty caring for those in need and continuing to proclaim the good news, especially while they experienced increased persecution.

And so seven people from the community were chosen to take on caring for those who were in need: Stephen, Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus. Only two of these are mentioned further in the New Testament, Stephen and Philip. Stephen is considered the first martyr of the church; quickly following his selection as deacon, he was brought up on charges of blasphemy. After speaking passionately about the history of Israel and God's coming in Jesus Christ, a group threw stones at him until he died. His last words imitate the forgiveness of Jesus: "Lord, do not hold this sin against them."

After Stephen's death, the early church scattered for safety. Philip began to proclaim the good news, first converting the town of Samaria and then meeting the Ethiopian eunuch on the road (Acts 8). His spiritual gift of evangelism allowed him to meet people along the way, and it is something he shared with his four daughters, who welcomed Paul late in his journey (Acts 21).

Deacons and their qualifications are mentioned several times throughout the New Testament, and they played a central role in the life and witness of the early church. Deacons "must be serious, not double-tongued, not indulging in much wine, not greedy for money; they must hold fast to the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience" (1 Timothy 3). Deacons were not limited by gender, and we hear in Romans 16 how Phoebe, a deacon of the church at Cenchræ (in Greece), should be welcomed when she arrived in Rome.

From the very beginning, the work of deacons mirrored Jesus's work. In Mark 10:45, Jesus says: "For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many." The word 'serve' is the root word in 'deacon,' emphasizing the calling that Jesus fulfills: to serve, minister, help, and take care of those who are in need. Deacons have guided the Church throughout its life in this mission, even in our own congregation: "We grow in Christ to SERVE others."

May God's serving and caring heart call you to love others today!

Peace, Pastor Aaron

President's Perspective

By John Gallo
Council President

Greetings Members of Triumphant!

As our calendar turns to June, it's great to start another summer season and all the fun that summer brings. Even though some activities are on hiatus for the summer, there are plenty of opportunities to grow here at TLC. Please be on the lookout and feel free to help wherever you feel your talents lead you. As we start the summer season, I am happy that we have returned to three services and have upcoming activities such as Vacation Bible School. The Church Council will be meeting this month for our mid-year retreat to review our goals and finalize activities for the rest of the year. I know many have asked when we will stop requiring masks; we will be discussing our Covid protocols at the retreat. We are also formulating a questionnaire for the congregation. Please plan to participate, as we need to hear your voice.

Over the summer, you will see a few projects around the church campus such as renovating Heimer Hall for our Mother's Day Out program, sealing and painting our parking lot, and refinishing the front doors of the church. These projects could not take place without your giving, so thank you for your continued generosity. This month, many of our youth will be attending camp, so please keep these campers and their families in your prayers as they enjoy fellowship and learn about God's word.

When I look back at the year we have had so far, I am humbled to be part of this amazing congregation and see how many have stepped up to help through the challenges we have faced. Being humble is a constant theme throughout the Bible in both the Old and New Testaments. It is something that we can struggle with in our daily lives as we get wrapped up in the world in which we live. So, as we start the summer and look towards the second half of the year, let us remember to be humble and thankful for God's amazing gifts. My Bible verse for this month comes from James 4:6 NRSV — "But He gives all the more grace; therefore it says, 'God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble.' "

John Gallo, TLC Council President

Welcome to TLC's Newest Members

These families joined Triumphant over the past year, and we are so happy to finally officially welcome them into their new church family on Sunday, May 30!

Congregational Life

Becky Sonnen

Hello Friends,

It looks like Congregational Life is finally getting a little bit busier. For Mothers' Day, we served up pretzels and candy packs to our lovely mothers. On Pentecost Sunday, we offered coffee, lemonade, and cupcakes in celebration of our graduates. At the end of May, we had our Church Picnic. I hope everyone is enjoying getting back to a little bit of normalcy. Now, we are resuming Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship.

Below is a schedule for bringing store-bought cookies. Please consider bringing cookies on your scheduled Sunday. Thank you!

Last Name	Date
A - B	June 6
C - D	June 13
E - G	June 20
H - J	June 27

T - Z	Aug 1

For June, we will have a little surprise for our dads on Father's Day. In July, we are planning an ice cream party. So, let's get ready to start having some fun!

Congregational Life is all about finding ways to socialize with other people within our congregation and our community. We are currently looking for volunteers, so if you would like to be a part of the Congregational Life Ministry or have suggestions for activities, please text me or send me an email. God Bless!

Knights of North Castle Vacation Bible School

July 18 - 22, 2021

6:00pm - 8:20pm

At this summer's Vacation Bible School, children are invited to be the king's valiant knights on a quest in search of the king's armor, to be strong in the Lord, and to discover different pieces of protective armor—the Belt of Truth, the Breastplate of Justice, the Shoes of Peace, the Shield of Faith, and the Helmet of Salvation.

Children will enjoy a week of fun activities while learning about God. They will receive a t-shirt, so be sure to include the correct size on the registration form.

Registration is NOW OPEN! Click here to register through the church website. Have questions? Send an email to Allison Moreland.

Join the Fun — Help with VBS!

I was blessed to be involved with VBS for 2 years, and was struck each time by the energy of the kids and volunteers, and how much fun it was to be involved with such a great program.

- Not used to working with kids? Don't worry! There are lots of things that will need doing "in the background" that we will need help with.
- Not a lot of time? The evening format makes it after work, and provides a "lift" to the end of your day.
- Worried you'll "get stuck" with too much to do? We will have many volunteers to tackle different tasks, so you won't be asked to do more than you want.

Please come join us — I think you will see the hand of God at work in the kids and volunteers, and will be glad you didn't miss this opportunity to serve and worship!

New Stephen Ministers

By Rose-Marie Smith

Celebrations – even the word brings a smile to our faces and excited anticipation to our hearts. There are many things we celebrate: birthdays, especially first birthdays (we parents kept the child alive for a year), people’s homecoming to Jesus through death, a job gotten or kept, promotions, anniversaries of all kinds, and retirement. We even celebrate faith milestones such as baptism, first communion, and confirmation.

Our faith is a journey, full of ups and downs, through which God builds a faith journey that lasts. We need to keep our eyes of faith open wide. God is working in our hearts and has a purpose for everything. He fulfills His promises, intentionally positioning people for His plans and our good.

Today, let’s take a moment to celebrate the “in-betweens” – the things between the milestone events. Reflect, and thank Him, for what He’s done this year. Celebrate Him and proclaim His goodness. Honor your long story with the Lord and His working in your heart. God says that you are worth it, and He won’t give up on you. Thank Him for being the Lord who both sees and hears you. As you trust Him, He grows your faith. Share your celebration with others. It will encourage and give hope and courage to another to move forward, plus it glorifies God.

A common celebration, especially at this time of year, is graduation. We have our latest class of Stephen Ministers graduating on June 13. These ladies (Samantha Neuzil, Nancy Patchin, and Debbie Roberts) put their “yes” on the table when God called them into this ministry, not knowing what it would be like.

Stephen Ministry is about being willing to serve; to care for and about others. People are precious. When they hurt or suffer, they deserve the best care and support we can offer, which is why our congregation has Stephen Ministry. Their training, commitment, and service make them the best at providing care for people who need it. Caregiving is one of the important jobs God calls us to do – to love others in His name. We thank God for His gift of these people who are joining our other Stephen Ministers in putting their skills and compassion to work as they care for people in our congregation and community.

The accomplishments of our Stephen Ministers deserve applause. Please join me in recognizing their efforts, affirming and supporting their dedication, and praying for them as they begin their caring ministry. Throughout their 50 hours of training, as they prepare to provide Christian care to their initial care receivers, each one trusts in God to equip and teach them to be less self-reliant and to lean more into God. They will use both words and deeds to express Christ’s love and compassion to others. They’ll walk alongside hurting people, encouraging and not judging, while providing emotional and spiritual support as they go through a valley-of-life crisis.

God uses imperfect, broken, and flawed people to accomplish His will. It’s not about us, but Him. When He asks you to do something, you don’t do it alone. God is intimately involved in the details of our lives. There is value in relationship – with Him and others. God puts people (like Stephen Ministers) in our lives for a reason. It is part of how He meets us in our messes – but loves us enough not to leave us there.

Be confident about whatever God is doing in your life. Reflect on it, be patient in waiting and suffering as you let go of control, trusting His sovereignty. Then, tell others as you embrace your journey of faith and cheer others on to celebrate their spiritual freedom, healing, and growth.

Like our newest Stephen Ministers, make an impact on others’ lives, especially when they really need someone to care. Bring them Christ’s love.

Where has God blessed you so richly that you can give back by helping others to win their tough life battles? Give another the hope to move forward and celebrate a happy future with a heart growing closer to God. Help them to embrace a new chapter in life of God’s faithfulness through triumph in a struggle or challenge. Celebrate with Samantha, Nancy, and Debbie as they say yes to God.

If you are worshipping from home and need communion kits, send an email to Sharon Hopkins to let us know. We'll be happy to make sure you have communion elements.

Choir and Praise Band News

Great news! On June 6, the Choir is resuming singing at our 9am service! We need your voice! We know there are some great singers out there. Come join our group as we have fun praising the Lord with voice and harmony. We practice on Wednesdays at 6:30pm for about 45 minutes. Please send an email to Ken Smith or Carol Snyder if you have any questions. You are never too old (or young!) to make a joyful noise unto the Lord!

More great news! On June 6, the Praise Band is also resuming at the 11am service! If you play an instrument or you like to sing in traffic to contemporary Christian music, the Praise Band might be the perfect way for you to serve TLC. We are currently looking for a bass guitar player. Practices are on Thursdays at 6:30pm at the church. Please contact Ken Smith or Carol Snyder if you have any questions.

Calling all Acolytes!

As we come out of this year of isolation and move things back to normal, we are gearing up our Acolyte program. If you have children (3rd grade+), pre-teens, or teenagers wanting to serve our church in this important ministry, now is the perfect time to sign up. Acolyte training on July 25 at 10am will prepare them to begin serving at worship on August 1. Help grow faith, service, and confidence in your children. Have questions? Please send an email to Ken Smith.

Acolyte Scheduler Needed

We need your help! We are looking for an Acolyte leader. This behind-the-scenes job is not hard or time consuming. Acolyte training is done by the Pastor. All you need to do is schedule the acolytes for the 9am and 11am services. Once you set up the schedule, parents are responsible for finding a sub if there is a scheduling conflict. Please contact Ken Smith if you have any questions. This important leadership role is an easy way to serve and, as an added benefit, any acolytes in your family get first dibs on the schedule.

Creative Blessings News

Creative Blessings has resumed meeting on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month from 6 - 8pm in the church library. The main goal is to have prayer shawls for anyone in need of comfort — they do NOT need to be church members. Please call Sharon St.Clair (210.651.9090) if you have questions or have a need for a prayer shawl.

Sound And Livestream Team News

The Sound and Livestream Team (SALT) is recruiting your body!! This is a wonderful and fulfilling ministry that supports both live and telecasted services. Please consider supporting this ministry. If you can work a smart phone, that's all the technical experience you need. Trust me, it is not hard! If Ken Smith can learn how to do it, anyone can. If we can get enough folks (young teens to old fogies that can climb the stairs to the loft), then you might serve every 4th to 5th Sunday. Send an email to Ken Smith or Christie Brinkman if you have any questions.

Front Door Refinishing

D2 Doors will be staining and refinishing the front doors to the church on Monday, June 14, weather permitting. If you need to stop by the church offices that day, please call first (210.651.9090) so we can tell you how to navigate around the work site.

The Good Steward

By Mary Gandolfo

Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you saying, "This is the way; walk in it." — Isaiah 30:21 NIV

If you are anything like me, certain voices resonate throughout your lifetime. I hear their words and am often convicted by them. My mother — wow, could she convict me! Her favorite saying was something along the lines of “do the right thing even if it isn’t fun, or your first choice, or your second choice.” Her overall statement was to do what was best for all concerned. I may have mentioned this to you before, but I am reminded every day how right she was. Her voice still guides me in the decisions that I make. I have to be reminded that I am not the only one here.

My dear brothers, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, for anger does not bring about the righteous life that God desires. — James 1:19 – 20 NIV

Have you ever had a conversation with someone who really didn’t listen to what you were saying? It may have seemed as if their own voice was the only one they needed to hear, and so, by extension, the only one you needed to hear. I admit to being like that sometimes. I have something to say and you are GOING to hear me! But is that really the best way to learn about your neighbor, family members, or brothers and sisters in Christ?

Life during the pandemic has been hard! We have not used some of our communication skills as often and it shows. We don’t exhibit the kind of patience necessary to really hear and heed what others are saying. What happens next? We get antsy ... you know ... like you want to say “Just get to the point!” Hurt feelings and anger can develop. Then we are no longer communicating — we are just making noise. Is this really the kind of noise God wants to hear from us?

Then a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!" — Mark 9:7 NIV

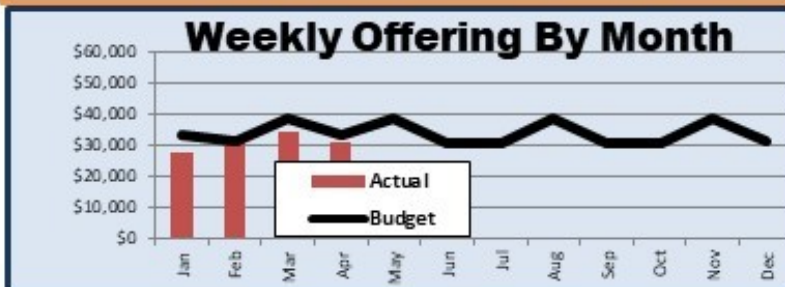

The Good Steward is only human, and can fall into the trap of listening only to respond instead of to actually understand what is being said. The Good Steward is also a forgiven child of God. We have a chance to listen to Jesus. We have a chance to understand His message about loving our neighbors and, in some cases, to better understand our neighbor. We hear Jesus in the words of scripture, in the words of our friends, family members, and neighbors. We may hear Jesus in the groans from those who are frustrated and tired. We may hear Jesus in the laughter and joy of those around us. We may hear Jesus in the way we treat others and the way they treat us. Hmmm, then we think about what just happened. I invite you to join me as I continue to learn about slowing down and really listening to the world around me — this Good Steward needs to learn that lesson again every day. I pray that you hear Jesus today and every day, with a heart ready to really listen to Him. Amen.

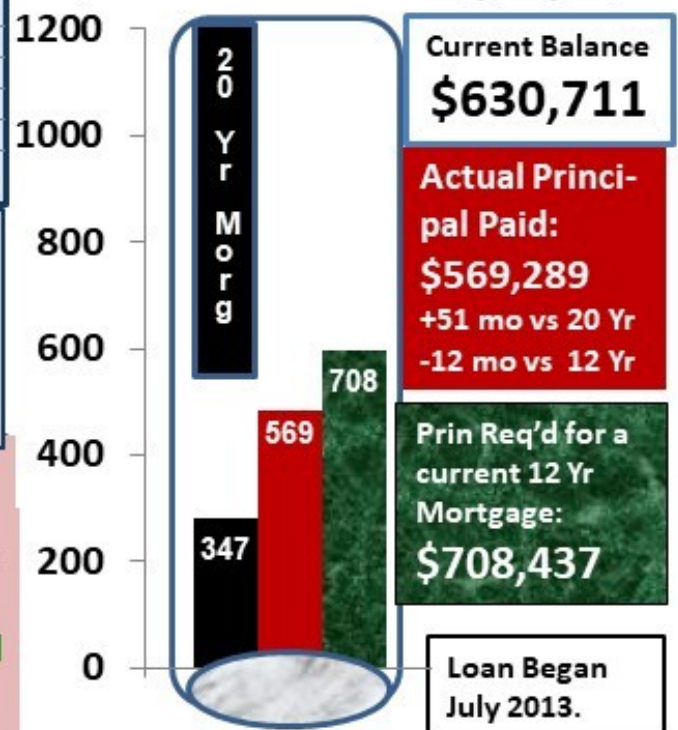

April 2021 Financials

KEY POINTS:

- ✦ Bottom Line: Total Net Income for April was -$869. Total Net Income YTD is -$23,209. See the Financial Summary at the bottom of the page for more detail.
- ✦ General Offering: Weekly Offering through April was $123,816, net -$8,463 against programmed. ECP's Preschool program has resumed and is helping, but this will likely be a slow rebuild, most of the year. Also, the big freeze damaged the ECP facilities quite a bit.
- ✦ Building Fund: Bldg Fund Income through April was $31,530, net +$1,162 against our required mortgage, thanks to some one-time gifts.
- ✦ Going Forward: We have strong reserves. That said, last year ended well because we received PPP loan benefits of $87,600. We do not qualify for the Round 2 PPP in 2021. The ECP will be rebuilding in 2021, but it will take the whole year if not longer. Bottom line, there will likely be a need to support normal operations with $50-80K from Reserves in 2021, barring additional revenue from other than PPP. We are exploring one other potential source now. It will not be as large as the 2020 PPP (possibly 1/3rd), but will of course be helpful. Big Freeze repair costs also remain in front of us. Insurance will offset somewhat.
