HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

Pastor Aaron's Message

Greetings, Easter People!

It's funny when you come across something that really connects with what has been on your mind. This happened to me during Holy Week when this short devotion from Frederick Buechner, pastor and author, popped up:

"...we really can't hear what the stories of the Bible are saying until we hear them as stories about ourselves."

"There was a great teacher of the Old Testament at the seminary where I studied for the ministry years ago, and one thing he told us that I have always remembered is that we really can't hear what the stories of the Bible are saying until we hear them as stories about ourselves. We have to imagine our way into them, he said. We have to imagine ourselves the prodigal son coming home terrified that the door will be slammed in his face when he gets there, only to have the breath all but knocked out of him by the great bear hug his father greets him with before he can choke out so much as the first word of the speech he has prepared about how sorry he is and how he will never do it again, not unlike the way Sunday after Sunday you and I say in our prayers how sorry we are and how we will never do it again. We have to put ourselves in the place of the good thief spread-eagled in the merciless sun saying to the one who is dying beside him,

"Jesus, remember me when you come in your kingly power," the way at the heart of every prayer we have ever prayed or will ever pray, you and I are also saying it in one form or another: Remember me. Remember me. Jesus, remember." — Dancing in the Dark by Frederick Buechner

During the last few weeks of Lent (which included the stories of the prodigal son and the Passion), I found myself trying to understand the different people who were in these stories. The Living Last Supper presentation (watch it again here!) was a great opportunity to hear the motivations, struggles, and hopes that each disciple probably experienced and brought to that table. Ignatius of Loyola, who founded the Jesuit order, developed a similar method of placing oneself in the story and imagining what we would sense and feel in that situation. It is a deeper way of experiencing the story of God than just reading.

As we enter into the season of Easter, our Sunday worship readings will be from Acts and the Gospel of John, and each will give us an opportunity to experience how resurrection changes and transforms lives. In Acts, the disciples, filled with the Holy Spirit and the promise of new life, begin to preach and share the good news. What would it be like to speak about Jesus to new people, families, and communities? How would it feel, especially when dealing with hostile forces? As Jesus appears to the disciples after the resurrection, what must it be like to expect that the dead usually stay dead, but to see the exception right in front of you?

Throughout this Easter season, may our lives connect to the story of God, whose resurrection and life break in and fill us with joy!

Congregational Life

I can't believe May is already here. Time is flying by.

I would like to thank all the lovely ladies who brought sandwiches and/or cookies for the funerals in April, and Marcia Brinkman who has been helping out with the funerals and with Sunday Morning Coffee Fellowship. You know, when we have a funeral, it is easy to see that the people in our congregation truly are wonderful. You are generous, loving, helpful, and compassionate. It makes me so proud to be a part of such a fantastic group of Christians.

I also have a group of ladies who help out with the cards sent out for birthdays, anniversaries, and other reasons. Thank you, sweet ladies.

Barbara Wade, Nancy Hendricks, Nancy Patchin, Marcia Brinkman, Michelle Salazar, Kenny Weber and I have been working on deep cleaning the Fellowship Hall kitchen. It is shaping up nicely. Thank you!

In March and April, we had Lenten Meals prepared by TLC Council, Men's Bible Study Group, Ladies' Bible Study Group, Altar Guild, and TLC staff. What a terrific job they all did! Thank you all for your generosity, time, and work.

We look forward to the Congregational Picnic on May 29, and an ice cream social on July 3.

I will be preparing meals and snacks for VBS this year, and am looking for helpers. If you are interested in helping out with VBS and think that meal preparation is your forte, talk to me.

Timothy Earl Fetter

*July 26, 1948 —
March 20, 2022*

*T*imothy Earl Fetter was a caring husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend.

He passed away after a valiant fight with cancer on March 20, 2022, at age 73, surrounded by loved ones. Tim was born to Robert and Shirley Fetter on July 26, 1948, in Wooster, Ohio. After high school, he enlisted in the U.S. Air Force as an admin and recruiter, where he met his wife Sheila and they had two children: Aaron and Amanda.

While serving, Tim obtained his Master's in Business Administration from the Florida Institute of Technology. He proceeded to serve for 23 years before retiring at the rank of Captain and continuing his career as a real estate broker.

An avid roadtripper, Tim was often found driving across the U.S. with Sheila in their RV. He was a lover of ice cream and the Green Bay Packers. Tim is survived by his wife, Sheila; son, Aaron; daughter, Amanda; brother, William; grandchildren, Kyle, Cara, Henry, and Piper; and cat, Miracle. In lieu of flowers, please honor Tim's life by donating to the Memorial Fund at Triumphant Lutheran Church, the Elks Children's Home in Gonzales, Texas, or the American Lung Association.

Tim was a member of Triumphant for 9 years and will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

James Leon Shuler

*August 12, 1944 —
April 5, 2022*

*J*im was born at a healthy weight of almost 11 pounds to Lillian and William Shuler in San Antonio. The second of six siblings, Jim grew up in a busy household of four boys and twin sisters. He started school not knowing how to read or write, but by the end of the year he was acting as a mentor to others struggling in the class. This experience foreshadowed his time as a coach and educator. He graduated from Sam Houston High School, where he played basketball and holds the school record for the most points scored in a game. Jim played basketball and received his bachelor's degree at Carson Newman where he was elected to represent the student body, was named as an All-American in 1966, and was included on Carson Newman's Team of the Century. After college, Jefferson High School hired Jim to teach biology and coach JV football and basketball. As a young Head Basketball Coach, Jim took their team to the state tournament. Shortly thereafter, he started his career as the head basketball coach at Texas Lutheran University and he married Linda. He retired with a career of more than 500 wins, 200 more wins than any other TLU head basketball coach. He was awarded the Distinguished Faculty Award, earned a spot in the Athletic Hall of Fame, and the TLU basketball court has been named in his honor. Jim coached many kids throughout the years and was very proud of them. It was important for Coach to see kids graduate and become well-rounded both personally and professionally. He was an avid golfer and fisherman as well.

Jim is survived by Linda, his wife of 48 years; his grown children Mark, Andrea, and Tim and his grandchildren.

Jim made a difference in many lives and will be dearly missed.

7 Important Women of the Protestant Reformation

This is the third of the seven notable women of the Protestant Reformation featured in The Christian Post. Although these women have differing backgrounds, they each greatly supported the movement and helped advance Protestant beliefs.

Marguerite de Navarre (1492 - 1549)

Marguerite de Navarre (1492-1549), a French royal family member known for being a poet, playwright, diplomat, royal advisor, and supporter of the Protestant Reformation.
| Public Domain

A member of France's royal family, Marguerite de

Navarre was a well-educated writer and supporter of the arts who was in her 20s when the Protestant Reformation began.

Marguerite came to embrace the Reformation after reading works by Martin Luther and John Calvin, and advocated for having a French translation of the Bible.

After becoming queen of a small kingdom between France and Spain known as Navarre, she made the region a refuge for Protestants persecuted by Catholic monarchs.

"In addition to welcoming writers, artists, scholars and theologians to her court to discuss and exchange their ideas, she provided refuge from persecution for John Calvin and other leaders of the Reformation movement in France and elsewhere," wrote Subby Szterszky of Focus on the Family.

"She was the first French noblewoman to compile and edit her own selection of her works, and Protestantism's first published female poet. Her writings, introspective and mystical, reflect her journey toward the Reformed faith and her personal relationship with Christ."

Editor's Note: This article continues next month when the fourth of these notable women will be featured in the June edition of The Trumpet.

As I look over the May calendar, I'm struck by the number of celebratory events it holds – not long after our Easter celebration. This brings to my mind the concept of success. What is success?

The world mainly defines success by measuring the amount of wealth, power, possessions, and even level of popularity someone amasses. The dictionary defines success as “a favorable termination of a venture, specifically the attainment of wealth, favor, or eminence.” However, what does the Bible say about success?

Basically, the Bible talks of success in spiritual and lasting terms ending in joy and eternal life. So, we have opposing views. The worldly view is fleeting, short-sighted, and centered on self-promotion and gratification. The Biblical view is centered on obedience, glorification of God, and the eternal. The indwelling of the Holy Spirit empowers and enables believers to obey Christ's teachings as we're motivated by our love for God – transforming our lives, minds, and hearts.

When we work for God and to further His kingdom in all we do, we'll find the purpose, fulfillment, and satisfaction we're all desperately seeking.

God delights in giving good gifts, including material things, to His children. There's nothing wrong with having worldly success, unless we start to value them above God, worshipping the gift over the Giver. Focusing our hearts and minds on God, allowing, and submitting to His transforming work within us is biblical success. Any degree of success is based on God's grace working in us for our good and His glory.

Often, we get wrapped up in the worldly concept of success, or find ourselves in painful, discouraging, and broken places. We struggle with our faith – “the size of a mustard seed” seems too big to have. We take our eyes off God and focus on our struggles, worldly values, and success. This is when a Stephen Minister can help us lift our eyes. We were never meant to bear the weight of our problems alone. The Lord's presence is the light in the darkness. Lean on Him, trusting in His promises.

Stephen Ministers are used by God to be a blessing to others. They have willing and open hearts, reaching out to give hope in Christ. They don't resist helping due to feelings of inadequacy, being overwhelmed with their own challenges, or leaving their comfort zones. They trust God to equip them and are obedient to His word – “Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others.” (Phil 2:4) They are being successful.

We each need to take what gifts God has given us and use them. It can be teaching, singing, leading, building, cooking, cleaning, taking care of children, etc. We need to overcome our fear and laziness, which prevent us from using our talents for His glory. We can apply Biblical success as we pursue peace, wisdom, the godly perspective, and obedience to His will. We need to be aware of being prideful, for we can think we don't need God and can achieve on our own. We must keep Jesus at the center of everything.

Ask yourself – am I working to make myself look good or am I working to glorify God? When we work for God and to further His kingdom in all we do, we'll find the purpose, fulfillment, and satisfaction we're all desperately seeking. Then we'll be a true success and hear Him say “Well done, my good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!” (Matthew 25:21)

Treasurer's Corner

By Gordon Hengst

Greetings TLC! With this newsletter, I can close out reporting on the first quarter of 2022! So how are we financially? January had a slow start to the year, February had a good financial rebound, but March was a slow month again. So overall, at the end of the first quarter, we are BEHIND our Budget Year-to-Date by about $18,000. And the Building Fund also closed out the First Quarter about $4,000 behind Budget Year-to-Date. When the Finance Team reviews the monthly financials, they also look at previous years to look for trends because tithing historically fluctuates from month-to-month. So even though our First Quarter was not up to the planned budget, the Finance Team is hopeful because Easter was in April this year (last year it was in the First Quarter) and May is a 5-Sunday month. These two key events could help us recover in April and May before we head into the summer months.

In other financial news, the current Mortgage loan balance is $543,729.31, and the Finance Team completed and submitted the mortgage refinancing package to Thrivent. After reviewing our current financial status, TLC's mortgage history, and the strength of our congregation, Thrivent locked us in at an APR of 3.75% for 5 years with 2 additional years to be adjustable rates. The refinancing lowered our monthly mortgage payment to $7,295.00, but if we keep paying at our current mortgage payment level of $7,592.00, we will pay off our loan 4 months early!! So, my challenge to all of us is to keep TLC in your thoughts and prayers even when you're away on vacation or just taking some time off during the summer!

And yes, it was very ironic that your TLC Treasurer had the role of JUDAS in the Living Last Supper!

The Good Steward

By Mary Gandolfo

This is how one should regard us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.

— 1 Corinthians 4:1 ESV

Being perceived by the rest of the world as servants or stewards may not be the most comforting way of defining ourselves. When you think of the word “servant,” what images come to mind? Do you see someone as a member of the family? Do you see someone as almost invisible because they are there only for the convenience of the residents of the house? Do you see these as valued by those around them for more than just the labor they provide? OR — do you see one who values the world around them and wants to work to make it comfortable, sustainable, peaceful, and safe?

As servants and stewards of God’s world, we have been entrusted with a one-of-a-kind creation. There is no place else like our home, wherever and whenever that is. Give two people identical living spaces and those spaces will become very different — from the furniture to the posters on the wall. This demonstrates to me that we all care for the places and people around us in different ways, all of them necessary and providing for the needs of those around us.

We know that God created the world, and it belongs to Him, not us. Because of this, we are only stewards or trustees of God’s creation, and we aren’t to abuse or neglect it. — Billy Graham

We have a place and position to fill as servants and stewards. We are the ones who see, hear, feel, and experience the people and places of God’s creation. We are the ones commissioned to respond and care for whatever we come across in this place and time. God has called us to be His children, heirs to the responsibility of being caretakers — in other words, stewards and trustees of His world.

Be imitators of God, as dearly loved children, and live a life of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. — Ephesians 5:1 – 2 NIV

Just as Christ came to care for us, we need to be mindful of those around us. This is not always easy or convenient. It is work that the Good Steward does every day from the time we wake until the time we again slumber. And we do it willingly, with grateful hearts and minds. I have a small plaque on my sewing table that says: “There is always, always, always something to be thankful for.” That is my reminder that I am privileged to be a part of God’s plan for the caretaking of this time and place.

Join me as I respond to the world around me in a manner that says, “God loves you and so do I.” I won’t always do it right, but I will always try!

March 2022 Financials

KEY POINTS:

✝ March: March was a poor financial month for TLC. One could hypothesize that the impact of Spring Break stretching over several weeks had a definite impact on tithing this month. Weekly offerings were about $6,000 BELOW budget and the Building Fund was $1987.77 BELOW budget. Together, we had an $18,611.82 LOSS for the month.

✝ Building Fund and Mortgage: The Building Fund did not receive enough in March to meet the monthly mortgage, so $1,987.77 was taken from the Building Fund Current Excess Account to make the full mortgage payment. The Building Fund Excess Reserve now has a deficit balance of $-4,244.41.

✝ Mortgage: The Refinancing package was completed and sent to Thrivent on March 27, 2022. Our locked-in rate for 5 years is 3.75% with 2 additional years of adjustable rates.

Any amount above the Mthly Goal is put towards the Principal, so we need to make the goal every month
